GOT AWARD RIBBONS

Francis Tells Utah's Governor That Charges Made by Committee From His State are Both Ridiculous and Libelous.

Salt Lake City, March 2 Governor Cuttler to-day received from David R. Francis, President of the Louisiana Porchase Exposition, a long telegram reating to the report of the committee from the lower house of the Utah Legislature. which recently investigated the affairs of the Utah Commission to the Exposition. President Francis stated that if the committee visited St. Louis, it did not call on im or any other Exposition official. The committee's charges against the Exposition management, in connection with the sale of award ribbons, he says, are ridiculous and libelous. President Francis "Award ribbons were sold by concession aires solely, no Exposition official having any interest therein. Their sale was permitted by the Exposition for the accommo dation of exhibitors, but was restricted to those receiving awards, and other purhases of such ribbons are fraud, to which both concessionaire and purchaser are parties, and both will be prosecuted in every
